

Possible topics

What I learned, relearned or found interesting about Mi'kmaq history or culture.

Below is a list of possible topics for the assignment. You do not have to use these topics they are simply meant to activate your own thinking about what you have learned.

- Migration of first peoples from Asia to North and South America
- "People of the Dawn" What is significant about that name?
- Northern lights and lacrosse.
- Images in the moon.
- Lunar calendar.
- Making flutes.
- Everything you need to know about duck potatoes / rabbits head / arrowhead.
- Piktuk (PICTOU) and the serpent.
- Beaches on cliff tops. Geological folding and faulting.
- Rocks from around the world.
- Partridge Island and stories of Gloscap (Kluscap) First Nations connection with nature.
- OTHER
- Mi'kmaq creation stories.
- Importance of bird migration
- Birch bark and fireflies.

Mi'kmaq: Homes / Transportation / Clothing / Food / Pastimes / Language / Religion / OTHER